

St Alban's Parish Church

Sunday 13th April Palm Sunday

We travel with Jesus, firstly as part of the crowd joyfully witnessing God's holy kingdom breaking into Jerusalem's stronghold of earthly power. Then we step out with him on the road to the cross, encouraging one another to hold fast to the way.

Intercessions

We pray that during this Holy Week churches around the world will stand together to proclaim boldly the love of the crucified and risen Christ.
We pray that leaders and governments may not be swayed by populism but will govern justly, compassionately and wisely for the good of all.
We pray for all who serve others, especially those whose work is often hidden from sight, giving thanks for the professions that maintain our energy supplies, roads and infrastructure.
We pray for any we know who have been brought low by afflictions of mind, body or spirit, asking that they receive healing, help and hope.
We pray for the departed, for those who have recently died, especially those we know including: Liam Kay, Sally Waters, Hilda Pluves, Julie Gray, Ivy Gombault, Jessie Grant, Harold Vaughan.

Next Sunday 20th April Easter Sunday

Our Lord Jesus is raised from death to eternal life and the power of death has been conquered by the invincible power of love. Rejoice and give thanks to the Lord our almighty God.

First Reading	Acts 10:34-43
Peter speaks of the anointing of Jesus, his ministry, his shameful death and his rising again. Peter proclaims that Jesus is ordained by God to be the way to forgiveness for all.
Second Reading	1 Corinthians 15:19-26
The hope of the risen Christ is not only for this life. All of Christ's enemies, even death, will be defeated, and all those who have died will be made alive.
Gospel	John 20:1-18
John tells the story of the first Easter morning, drawing us in to be part of the story of death and resurrection.

Digital and Online Giving

St Alban's relies solely on donations to maintain services and our work in the community. We know people want to be generous but don't always have the means at hand to make a donation when they are in church.

You can now use this QR code to make a donation online at any time via our secure website.

Thank you for your support.

Gospel

Luke 19:28-40

After he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, "Why are you untying it?" just say this: "The Lord needs it."' So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, 'Why are you untying the colt?' They said, 'The Lord needs it.' Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, 'Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!

Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!'

Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, 'Teacher, order your disciples to stop.' He answered, 'I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out.'

Liturgy of the Passion

First Reading

Isaiah 50:4-9a

The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.

Morning by morning he wakens— wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught.

The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backwards.

I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;

I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

The Lord GOD helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near.

Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together.

Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me.

It is the Lord GOD who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

Responsorial Psalm 31, 9-16

I trust in you, O Lord, for you are my God.

Have mercy on me, Lord, for I am in trouble; my eye is consumed with sorrow, my soul and my body also.

For my life is wasted with grief, and my tears with sighing; my strength fails me because of my affliction, and my bones are consumed. R

I have become a reproach to all my enemies, and even to my neighbours, an object of dread to my acquaintances; when they see me in the street they flee from me. I am forgotten like one that is dead, out of mind; I have become like a broken vessel. R

For I have heard the whispering of the crowd; fear is on ev'ry side; they scheme together against me, and plot to take my life. But my trust is in you, O Lord. I have said, 'You are my God. R

'My times are in your hand; deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me. 'Make your face to shine upon your servant, And save me for your mercy's sake.' R

Second Reading Philippians 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death — even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Gospel Acclamation

Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory! Christ humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross. But God raised him high, and gave him the name which is above all names.

Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!

Gospel

Luke 22:14 – end of 23
