Next Sunday 25th April
Fourth Sunday of Easter

Christ, the Good Shepherd, went before us through suffering and death, so that we could follow in safety and be with him in his heavenly kingdom.

Readings

First Reading Acts 4:8-12
Because they have proclaimed Jesus' resurrection from the dead, Peter and John have been arrested by the Sanhedrin. Filled with the Holy Spirit, Peter addresses the council, 'This is the only name by which we can be saved.'

Second Reading 1 John 3:1-2
We shall be like him because we shall see God as he really is.

Gospel John 10:1 – 18
The ancient ideal of "the good shepherd", protecting and making the ultimate sacrifice for his sheep, is regarded as being fulfilled by Jesus, his life on earth and his death.
"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep."

First reading Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

Peter said to the people: 'You are Israelites, and it is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our ancestors, who has glorified his servant Jesus, the same Jesus you handed over and then disowned in the presence of Pilate after Pilate had decided to release him. It was you who accused the Holy One, the Just One, you who demanded the reprieve of a murderer while you killed the prince of life. God, however, raised him from the dead, and to that fact we are the witnesses. 'Now I know, brothers, that neither you nor your leaders had any idea what you were really doing; this was the way God carried out what he had foretold, when he said through all his prophets that his Christ would suffer. Now you must repent and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out.'

Responsorial Psalm 4:2, 4, 7, 9

R. Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord.

When I call, answer me, O God of justice;
from anguish you released me, have mercy and
hear me! R.

It is the Lord who grants favours to those whom he loves;
the Lord hears me whenever I call him. R.

'What can bring us happiness?' many say.
Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord. R.

I will lie down in peace and sleep comes at once
for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety. R.

Second reading 1 John 2:1-5

I am writing this, my children, to stop you sinning;
but if anyone should sin,
we have our advocate with the Father,
Jesus Christ, who is just;
he is the sacrifice that takes our sins away,
and not only ours, but the whole world's.
We can be sure that we know God
only by keeping his commandments.
Anyone who says, 'I know him',
and does not keep his commandments,
is a liar, refusing to admit the truth.
But when anyone does obey what he has said,
God's love comes to perfection in him.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord Jesus, explain the Scriptures to us.
Make our hearts burn within us as you talk to us.
Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 24:35-48

The disciples told their story of what had happened
on the road and how they had recognised Jesus at the breaking of bread.

They were still talking about all this when Jesus
himself stood among them and said to them,
'Peace be with you!' In a state of alarm and fright,
they thought they were seeing a ghost. But he said,
'Why are you so agitated, and why are these doubts rising in your hearts? Look at my hands and feet; yes, it is I indeed. Touch me and see for yourselves; a ghost has no flesh and bones as you can see I have.' And as he said this he showed them his hands and feet. Their joy was so great that they still could not believe it, and they stood there dumbfounded; so he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' And they offered him a piece of grilled fish, which he took and ate before their eyes.

Then he told them, 'This is what I meant when I said, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses, in the Prophets and in the Psalms has to be fulfilled.' He then opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, 'So you see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this.'

Intercessions

We pray for Christians everywhere bearing witness to the resurrection of Christ in the face of hostility and danger.

We pray for ourselves as we bear witness to God's compassion and forgiveness in our own communities, among our colleagues, friends and neighbours.

We pray for ourselves; that we may be filled with the joy and peace of believing in the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, who reveals to us the love
and forgiveness of God.

We pray for those who are ill, anxious, bereaved or isolated and for those whose earthly life is drawing to its end. We pray for those who watch and wait and pray with them.

We pray for those infected by the coronavirus, their carers, health specialists and those working to halt
the spread of infection.

We pray for all who have died recently, together with all whose years mind occurs this week: Hilda Pluves, Julie Gray, Ivy Gombault.
