

St Alban's Parish Church

Next Sunday 3rd November
All Saints

We come to worship, rejoicing that we are part of the glorious company of saints in Christ down the ages and across the world. One with them in Spirit, we offer praises to almighty and eternal God.

Sunday 27th October Last Sunday after Trinity

We come together as the people of God in this place, to praise God for the miracle of our salvation and to seek God's blessing for our world.

First Reading Jeremiah 31:7-9

For thus says the Lord:

Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob, and raise shouts for the chief of the nations; proclaim, give praise, and say, 'Save, O Lord, your people, the remnant of Israel.' See, I am going to bring them from the land of the north, and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth, among them the blind and the lame, those with child and those in labour, together; a great company, they shall return here. With weeping they shall come, and with consolations I will lead them back, I will let them walk by brooks of water, in a straight path in which they shall not stumble; for I have become a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

Psalm 34, 1-6

I will bless the Lord at all times;
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
My soul shall glory in the Lord;
let the humble hear and be glad.

O magnify the Lord with me;
let us exalt his name together.
I sought the Lord and he answered me
and delivered me from all my fears.

Look upon him and be radiant
and your faces shall not be ashamed.
this poor soul cried, and the Lord heard me
and saved me from all my troubles.

Second Reading Hebrews 7:23-end

Furthermore, the former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues for ever. Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect for ever.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the light of the world, says the Lord;
anyone who follows me will have the light of life.

Alleluia!

Gospel Mark 10:46-end

They came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, 'Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!' Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, 'Son of David, have mercy on me!' Jesus stood still and said, 'Call him here.' And they called the blind man, saying to him, 'Take heart; get up, he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man said to him, 'My teacher, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has made you well.' Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Intercessions

We pray for the Church as it proclaims the Gospel message of healing and peace. May we expect miracles, and work together to help bring them about.

We pray for the leaders of the nations and of our communities; that they may be clear-sighted about what is needed in order that all may prosper.

We pray for those who are disabled; that their needs may be met so that they can participate fully in the society in which they live.

We pray for anyone who is sick or distressed, and for those who seek to offer them healing and comfort.

We pray for the departed, especially those known to us, for all who have recently died along with those whose years mind occurs this week including: Norman Lister, Muriel Callan, Joseph Driffill, Cedric Marshall, Marjorie Holmes.
