Next Sunday 10th November Remembrance Sunday

We gather to worship God on this day when many countries around the world remember those who have died in defence of the kingdom values of peace and justice. We remember, too, all those whose lives are affected by war and conflict today.

First Reading Jonah 3:1-5.10

After refusing God's call once, Jonah now accepts his mission to save the people of Nineveh from their evil ways as they repent and believe.

Second Reading Hebrews 9:24-end

In contrast to the repeated sacrifices in the Temple, Jesus made the perfect sacrifice, laying down his life to save others, once and for all.

Gospel Mark 1:14-20

Proclaiming the good news of God's kingdom, and the need for repentance, Jesus calls the first disciples to follow him and recruit others, and they obey immediately.

First Reading Wisdom 3:1-9

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace.

For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality.

Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt-offering he accepted them.

In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through the stubble.

They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them for ever.

Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

Psalm 24, 1-6

The earth is the Lord's and all that fills it, the compass of the world and all who dwell therein. For he has founded it upon the seas and set it firm upon the rivers of the deep.

Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord, or who can rise up in his holy place? 'Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, who have not lifted up their soul to an idol, nor sworn an oath to a lie;

'They shall receive a blessing from the Lord, a just reward from the God of their salvation.' Such is the company of those who seek him, of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.

Second Reading Revelation 21:1-6a

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

'See, the home of God is among mortals.

He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes.

Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.'

And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.' Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.' Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel John 11:32-44

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.'

When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?'

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.' Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?' So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

Intercessions

We pray for the Church, especially in places where people suffer persecution, asking the God of reconciliation to be with them at their time of need.

We bring to mind those Christians who have shone with the light of Christ, thanking God that they encourage us in faith.

We pray for areas of the world that are locked in conflict, asking the God of peace to open up creative ways to bring hostilities to an end.

We pray for those who are trapped in prisons of their own making, asking the God of mercy to set them free.

We pray for those grieving a loss – of a loved one, relationship, health or hope – asking the God of comfort to wipe away tears.

We pray for all who suffer in body, mind or spirit.

We pray for all who have recently died along with those whose years mind occurs this week including:

Charles Shepherdson, Annie Webber, Ron Hopper, Betty Minter, Keith Cairns, Catherine Hall.
