A Prayer for St Alban's

God of Mission who alone brings growth to your Church,
Send your Holy Spirit to give vision to our planning,
Wisdom to our actions, and power to our witness.
Help our church to grow in numbers,
In spiritual commitment to you,
And in service to our local community,

prayers

Next Sunday 6th November
Third Sunday before Advent

We learn about the glories of the resurrection life. Even though our current existence may be full of struggles and trials, we can be encouraged that there are incredible things in store for us in the life to come and we can look forward with hope and joy.

Readings

First Reading Job 19:23-27a
Job's friends believe he is to blame for the calamities he has suffered. However, Job looks forward to being vindicated by God in the future.

Second Reading 2 Thessalonians 2:1-5. 13-end
False teachers have worried the Thessalonians, claiming Christ has already returned. Paul denies this, teaching that certain significant events must occur before Jesus comes again.

Gospel Luke 20:27-38
A number of religious groups challenge Jesus with tricky questions. The Sadducees' question is asked in order to ridicule belief in life after death.

Services

First Reading Daniel 7:1-3, 15-18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: 'As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever.'

Responsorial Psalm 24:1-6

R.

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm. R

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things. R

He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. R

Second reading Ephesians 1:11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 6:20-31

Then he looked up at his disciples and said:

'Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

'Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled.

'Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

'Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

'But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

'Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry.

'Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep.

'Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

'But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Intercessions

We pray for all the saints who labour joyfully in the Church today, giving thanks and praying that all Christians will work towards unity and tolerance.

We pray for all the saints who labour responsibly in positions of authority, giving thanks and praying that all governments will work towards peace and justice.

We pray for all the saints who labour willingly to enrich our lives, giving thanks and praying that we too can all work to help others, near and far.

We pray for all the saints who labour daily to tend to those who are sick or help those who are poor, giving thanks and praying for all who suffer.

We pray for all the saints who from their labours rest, giving thanks and praying for deeper faith in our reunion with all our loved ones in heaven, including those whose years mind occurs this week:

Joseph Drifill, Cedric Marshall, Marjorie Holmes,
Charles Shepherdson, Annie Webber, Ron Hopper, Betty Minter.
