A Prayer for St Alban's

God of Mission who alone brings growth to your Church, Send your Holy Spirit to give vision to our planning, Wisdom to our actions, and power to our witness.
Help our church to grow in numbers,
In spiritual commitment to you,
And in service to our local community,

Next Sunday 13th November Remembrance Sunday

We remember all who have been injured or lost their lives in conflict, reflecting on the commandment to love one another.

Readings

First Reading Ecclesiasticus 44:1 - 9 Praise those remembered for great deeds; and also those of whom there is no memory, who have perished as though they had never existed.

Second reading 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18
Do not grieve about those who have died.

Gospel John 15:9b - 17
Love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends.

First Reading Job 19:23-27a

'O that my words were written down!
O that they were inscribed in a book!
O that with an iron pen and with lead they were engraved on a rock for ever!

For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that at the last he will stand upon the earth; and after my skin has been thus destroyed, then in my flesh I shall see God, whom I shall see on my side, and my eyes shall behold, and not another.

My heart faints within me!

Responsorial Psalm 17:1, 5-6, 8, 15

R.

I shall be filled when I a - wake with the sight of your glo - ry, O Lord.

Lord, hear a cause that is just,
pay heed to my cry.

Turn your ear to my prayer:
no deceit is on my lips. R.

I kept my feet firmly in your paths;
there was no faltering in my steps.
I am here and I call, you will hear me, O God.
Turn your ear to me; hear my words. R.

Guard me as the apple of your eye.
Hide me in the shadow of your wings
As for me, in my justice I shall see your face and be filled, when I awake, with the sight of your glory. R.

Second reading 2 Thessalonians 2:1-5, 13-17

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God.
Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter.

Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Stay awake, praying at all times for the strength to stand with confidence before the Son of Man.

Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 20:27-38

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him and asked him a question, 'Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.'

Jesus said to them, 'Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection.
And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.'

Intercessions

We thank God for eternal life, which Christ won through his death. May we learn to store up treasure in heaven and not on earth.

We pray that the joys of heaven inspire us to keep faithfully serving God, no matter what challenges and hardships we face.

We pray for those who are near death or afraid of dying. May they find peace in the truth of everlasting life.

We pray for those who mourn. May they be assured that Christ brings life from death and may that bring them comfort and hope.

We pray for the sick, the infirm, and the lonely, especially those known to us.

We thank God for all who have gone ahead of us, especially for those who have shown us something of what it is to love and be loved; praying for all those who have died recently; along with those whose years mind occurs this week: Keith Cairns, Catherine Hall, Thomas Redpath, Emily Page, Sr Margaret Irene OHP, Marion Lazenby.
